Dear Colleagues and Students,

The Department of Microbiology, AIIMS, Jodhpur will be observing Fungal Disease Awareness week (FDAW) from 23rd to 27th September 2019. FDAW was first initiated by CDC, USA in August 2017 with a slogan "Think fungus." Every year the program focuses on increasing awareness of fungal infections in community and doctors. Increased awareness about fungal diseases is one of the most important ways by which we can improve detection and reduce delays in diagnosis and treatment. Environmental changes, increased virulence among fungi, changes in host immune status, increasing travel across borders and emergence of antifungal resistance makes early diagnosis and treatment of fungal infections highly crucial. As AIIMS Jodhpur observes FDAW this year, the organizing committee of FDAW cordially invites Postgraduate students in Medical Microbiology from various institutions across Rajasthan and Gujarat for a Workshop on Basic Medical Mycology to be held on 28th September 2019 at AIIMS, Jodhpur (Microbiology Practical Lab, 2nd Floor, Academic Block).

We look forward to see you for FDAW at AIIMS, Jodhpur!
