Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Warm greetings from the organizing committee of 'Introduction to Cochrane Systematic Reviews and Meta-analysis'!

It is our privilege and honour to invite you to attend the workshop on 'Introduction to Cochrane Systematic Reviews and Meta-analysis', to be held on 20th August, 2016. Systematic Reviews and Meta-analysis is fast growing, fascinating field that is fundamental to highest level of evidence generation and evidence based practices. Understanding the basis and concepts of systematic reviews and meta-analysis is the need of hour. In this one day sensitization workshop, we aim to orient participants (faculty & senior resident doctors) to initiate systematic review and meta-analysis. The sessions will be case based and interactive to foster thorough understanding of concepts and build competency for critical appraisal of systematic reviews and meta-analysis. The esteemed faculty for the workshop is Prof. (Dr.) Prathap Tharyan, Director, Cochrane Reviews, Southeast Asia Region. This workshop would be a good opportunity to interact with Cochrane resource person and build your systematic review with our mentorship.

We are sure that you will find the meeting a great learning experience. With warm regards and best wishes,
