

INVITATION

Dear Friends,

It gives me immense pleasure to invite you all to our 1st Annual Head and Neck Cadaveric Dissection Module at AIIMS, Jodhpur on 02 Apr 2017.

You are requested to give this event widespread publicity amongst your Junior Colleagues to enable them to make the most of this wonderful learning opportunity. We have limited seats available and one should not let this great opportunity of experiencing world class hands-on learning with masters of their craft pass us by. Various Head and Neck Oncosurgical and Reconstructive procedures will be covered during this workshop. You are all welcome to the Sun City of Jodhpur for this academic feast!
