

Guidelines for Student Innovation and Research Initiative

For promoting research amongst Medical Undergraduates, applications would be invited once in a year under Student Innovation and Research Initiative (SIRI) Program in following categories:

Summer Research Studentship:

1. The undergraduate students are encouraged for studentship during their summer vacation at least 3 months prior to summer vacation.
2. The students are required to apply for studentship under the supervision of faculty member(s) depending upon their area of interest.
3. The applications received in Dean (Academics) office will be scrutinized by Dean Research and Dean Academics jointly.
4. The selected student would be allowed to work under faculty member(s) in an ongoing research project, where student has shown his/ her interest.
5. During the project student would learn the different domains of research including data handling and data analysis.
6. Based on his/her contribution and as per ICMJE criteria, the authorship/ acknowledgement may be offered to the student.
7. On completion of the training, the students will be required to submit report through concerned faculty to the Office of Dean Academics within one month of completion of studentship.
8. This studentship can be for a maximum period of 4 weeks only.
9. The students of other Institutions may avail this opportunity by applying through proper channel subject to the discretion of the Institute.
10. A certificate to this effect will be issued upon successful completion of studentship.

Summer Research Observership in other Institutions:

1. Undergraduate students may also undertake summer research observership in Institution of National Importance or Premier Research Institutions/ NonGovernmental Organizations of repute as observer/student/trainee during their summer vacation for a period of maximum 4 weeks.
2. Interested students would submit their applications to Office of Dean Academics at least 3 months prior to summer vacation.
3. The applications received in office of Dean (Academics) will be scrutinized by Dean Academics.
4. Depending upon the feasibility and suitability, applications will be forwarded to the concerned institution.
5. Selected students may be granted travel allowance of 2nd Sleeper train ticket. The student has to make his/her own arrangement for lodging and boarding.
6. Student upon successful completion of the observership will be required to submit completion of observership duly signed by the faculty of the concerned institution and submit the same to Dean Academics.
7. A certificate to this effect will be issued upon successful completion of studentship by AIIMS Jodhpur.
8. If the student wishes to avail observership in a foreign university/Institution during vacation, he/she may do so but without financial assistance from AIIMS Jodhpur.

Joint/group Student Research Initiative:

1. Undergraduate students of AIIMS Jodhpur are also encouraged to undertake research projects in groups consisting of 2-3 students under the guidance of faculty members (2-3) from the Institution depending upon their area of interest to be completed in a maximum of 1 year.
2. The applications will be called for in the month of January.
3. The students in group will prepare research proposal under the guidance of concerned faculty and submit the same to Office of Dean Academics for approval.
4. Approved projects will then be sent to IEC for ethical clearance through Office of the Dean Research.
5. Both the guides and students will have to find a dedicated time for research without compromising the normal schedule of teaching and other assigned works.
6. In case of outstanding projects, some financial help may be provided by the research section for purchasing of consumables on case-to-case basis to maximum of Rs. 1,00,000/-.
7. Upon the completion of research projects, the report would be submitted to Dean Academics.
8. The research work conducted by the students should be published jointly with the guides.
9. A certificate to this effect will be issued upon successful completion of the project.
