Invitation

Dear Colleague,

The Organizing Committee takes immense pride in inviting you to the 5th Hands-On Workshop on Basic Molecular Techniques, organized by the Department of Biochemistry, AIIMS Jodhpur, from April 21 to 25, 2025.

With rapid advancements in molecular biology shaping the future of biological sciences, a strong foundation in molecular techniques is essential for researchers and students. This workshop aims to provide comprehensive hands-on training in fundamental molecular biology tools. The program includes scientific lectures, practical sessions, and interactive discussions, allowing participants to enhance their understanding and refine their research skills. Attendees will also have the opportunity to engage with experts and discuss their ongoing research work.

Beyond the academic experience, Jodhpur—the Blue City—offers a rich cultural and historical landscape. Participants can explore Mehrangarh Fort, Umaid Bhawan Museum, and the sand dunes of Osian, along with the city's vibrant folk music, dance, and handicrafts.

We look forward to your participation in this enriching experience.
